Dear Friends,

As you may know, I have been travelling to New York City to reach out to that incredibly large Jewish community. The fields are truly white for the harvest.

I have been involved with a weekly men's study with Jewish businessmen in our Manhattan offices. Our plan is to expand this weekly study to reach out to more Jewish men. I very much need your prayers for ministry in New York City. Breaking through the religious and secular minds in the Jewish community is only possible by the work of God's Holy Spirit. Outside of Israel, New York City is the largest Jewish mission field in the world.

While New York City ministry is growing, I am still responsible for ministry in the Midwest Region. In Chicago, the congregation I planted continues to grow. It has been a training ground for Jewish studies students at Moody Bible Institute.

Last year a Jewish ministry in Minneapolis merged with Chosen People Ministries, and I am helping them in their transition. Our work in Pittsburgh continues to grow and I am working with them to raise up the next generation with interns from the Feinberg Center in Brooklyn.

My monthly study in Highland Park, a Jewish suburb of Chicago, continues to bear fruit. Each month we have new Jewish visitors who join us in the study of God's Word. They are amazed at how Old and New Covenants complement each other. We have been going through the book of Exodus.

Your support and prayers allow me to continue to work in ministry to the Jewish people. Thanks so very much for your partnership. May God's richest blessings be upon you.

Yours in Messiah,

Roy & Joanne Schwarcz
